Good Learner

The lucky winner of Learner of the Week this week was Evie L from Indigo Class.
Congratulations, a very big well done to you!

We have 4 classes this week who have reached over 96%. That's fabulous! Our whole school attendance was 97.26%, which is fantastic. Yellow Class managed 100% so that is well worth a mention. A reminder that we have a class Pizza Party towards the end of term for the class who have had over 96% attendance the most times, so it's something for the children to look forward to. It is very close between classes at the minute! We appreciate you sending your child in each and every day as this counts towards their class prize. We had 154 children with 100% attendance so very well done to them. The individual winner was Lacey-Mae C (Green)
Well done!
