Good Learner

The lucky winner of Learner of the Week this week was Kai D from Red Class.
Congratulations, a very big well done to you!

We've had a fantastic whole school attendance of 97.47% this week, smashing our whole school target of 96%. Only 1 class didn't manage 97% but once again, Red Class came out on top with 99.19%. This has been our most positive week for attendance since September; thank you so much for your continuing support. We still have plenty of time though for full attendance from each class to try win the Pizza Afternoon reward. Congratulations to the 147 children with 100% attendance.

The individual winner was Tyler-John K (Yellow Class) Well done!
